City Tax Receipts.

City Receiver Kindleberger yesterday received from City Collector Hall col-lections of city taxes for the past week as follows:

The Police Committee

Last night the council committee on police held its regular meeting. Bills were approved as follows: On account of the police department, $98.70; city prison, $147.75, a total of $217.45. It was decided to have samples of new back helmets presented at the next meeting for the purpose of selecting new winter helmets for the force.

The "Beants" Entertain.

Last evening "the Six Beauts" gave their first grand select hop at the Beabout hall, on Woods street, in the east end. There was a very good attendance, and all had a thoroughly enjoyable time. The committee in charge was composed of Ed Burton Costello, Julius H. Miller, Harry C. Bearley, P. J. Gillellgan, John J. Mehen and John A. C. Hesilin, R. ligan, Joh: Heslin, sr.

Squire Gillespy's Court.

G. W. Mercer was given a hearing yesterday before Squire Gillespy on a charge of defrauding Jacob Wilhelm out of $61 on an insurance deal. The case was pending for some time and was watched with a great deal of interest. After hearing all the evidence the justice discharged Mercer.

The case of Albert Auber, on a charge of emborning $2, was postponed until next Friday at 7 p. m.

Shot by a Wheeling Boy.

A letter was received here yesterday from Lincoln, Neb., saying that two former Wheeling colored boys, Barsh Hollinger and Tom Banks, were in trouble—and in Jall. They were accused of shooting a boy there in a quarrel. It is alleged that both fired, and it is not definitely known which fired the fatal shot. Holinger is the younger of the two sons of George Hollinger, who used to rum the McLure house barber shop.

Raided by the Police.

Raided by the Police.

Yesterday morning there were four-teen cases in the police court growing out of the raids on gambling rooms the night before. Last night the police paid "domiciliary visits" to Ada Foster, and captured her, four women and one man; Bessie Larue, where two women and one man were captured beside the landlady; Jessie Montecello, where she and four girls were found, and Maude Smith, where the same sized crowd was found.

An Extraordinary Picture.

One of the most magnificent pictures exhibiting the technical points of the "still life" artists, is displayed at Col. Sam Brubaker's art gallery at the "Wigwam." It is an old canvass, discovered by Mr. George House, of the firm of House & Hermann, while rummaging through an old bureau drawer. As soon as Mr. House looked on the picture he saw its value, and, although he coveted it himself, he finally disposed of it to Col. Brubaker at a price which neither parties allow to be made public.

A Wenderful Apple Yield.

A Wenderful Apple Yield.

In Ludiow township, Washington county, O., lived Edward McCormick, who had three apple orchards, all together not numbering more than 100 trees. Each tree was so heavly laden with fruit that it had to be propped to support the weight. Just before the apple harvest he sold the apples on the trees at ten cents per bushel. What follows is the value received. A field of fifteen acres of corn was harvested. shocked, husked and the fodder hauled in. For fencing, 150 locust posts were cut and dressed. His wheat was plowed again for winter wheat, and his potatoes dug and brought in. He had hid eighteen bushels of apples for each barrel serieds the fifteen bushels needed to make each barrel, and when all this was done he moved from Washington county to Friendly with four loads of goods, all this not costing him a cent of hard cash. This was last year's crop. Mr. McCormick now lives in Wellsburg, W. Va.

CARROLL CLUB OPENING.

The New Organization's Doors will Open Next Monday Evening.

The Carroll Club, the Catholic social organization, organized some months since, and which has been taken hold since, and which has been access to centuals stically by the younger element as well as by the older people, will have its formal opening and house warming next Monday evening at the club house on Chapline street. The invitations will be sent out to-day and it is probable the affair will draw a large number of people, members, their families and friends. The hours are from 7:30 to 11 p. m.

The club house is now a busy place, preparations going on for the opening. On the first floor four rooms are furnished, as follows: Gentlemen's parlor, ladies' parlor, library and a smaller parlor in the rear. On the second floor will be found the billiard room and card rooms. Other rooms are also to be fitted up, and at the annual meeting of the club's stockholders next Tuesday evening the matter of building ap addition at the rear for a bowling alley, gymnasium and assembly hail, will come up. Plans are already prepared for this improvement, and the contract will probably be awarded early this spring.

The committees in charge of Monday evening's reception and opening are as follows:

Reception—Hon. William C. Handlan, George F. Updegraff, J. A. Hess, Frank Kuglen, Charles J. Waterhouse, William Murray, Mathew T. McNamara, L. J. Miller, Charles Ray, J. W. Beltz, Sr., J. B.
